

“When I started my travel life, my goal was not to visit every country in the world. Not only because that there were too many of them (eventually 196) but also some seemed to be unreachable.

However, when I got in contact with Spiekermann Travel Service in 2006, I discovered that visiting much more countries is possible, as they have listened to my requests by adding few more countries to their planned schedule.

To finish the mission, STS arranged for me few private trips to Africa, and by that I have completed visiting 196 countries in total. For that I will always be thankful.

It is obvious that without STS I would have had much harder time to fulfil my goal.
