

SOUTH SUDAN EXTENSION

November 08 - November 10, 2024
Led by Local Guide

Friday, November 08

Arrive in Juba (SOUTH SUDAN)

From Asmara, Eritrea, take a mid-day flight to Juba via Addis Ababa. Upon arrival in the late afternoon, meet the local representative and transfer to Royal Palace Hotel or similar for check-in and overnight.

Saturday, November 09

Juba (Mundari Cattle Camp)

After breakfast, begin the drive to Terekeka Town to visit the Mundari for an up-close look into their culture and a chance to understand their way of life. The Mundari are a small group of cattle-herders and agriculturalists and for them, cattle are a form of currency and status. The men of this tribe often wash their hair in cow urine to give it a yellowish-orange hue and wear ritual scars on their foreheads. Enjoy a picnic lunch and later, watch the cows return to camp at sunset, an unforgettable site. Return to the Hotel in Juba for overnight. (B,L)

Wednesday, November 10

Juba - USA

After an early breakfast, have a quick tour of the city to the major points of interest as time permits including Jubek Mausoleum and Juba Maasai Market, an open market to shop for hand-crafted items, jewelry, fabrics, paintings, soap stone carvings, and wooden statues. Also visit the Baobab House/Gallery, named after the Baobab Tree, which is generally referred to as the “Tree of Life”. The All-Saints Cathedral, built in 1959, holds daily services in Arabic, English, and Zande. Then, transfer to the airport for your flight back to the US. (B)
